

Data Storage

---

The cloud-based system allows you to collect patient information from any internet browser and securely transmit the data to our data warehouses.

All messages are sent using a data-encrypted, HIPAA compliant platform. Protected health information is a fundamental priority.